-A horritie butchery occurred near Tate's Mill on Copper Creek in this county last Saturday night, in which Arms Rowland and Jack Rigsby were killed. Per Rigsby, Greely Lear and Andrew Hasty are now in jail accused of complicity in the awful affair. It seems that all had engaged in a row beyond town that afternoon, but no one was seriously injured. Jack Rigeby, who was a brak man on the L. & N., had been inred from his home near Louisville to have him sign some papers. This he refused to do and feared an attack, hence asked his cousin to accompany him home. This he did, but was unable to save the life of his friend. Jack Rigsby had fallen and Arap Lear was beating his head to a pulp, when Per Rigeby fired upon and killed the murderer. It is a distressing affair. Jack Rigsby leaves a young wife to moorn his untimely fate.
